In compliance with FMCSA regulation 391.23 part (i)(1) you have certain rights regarding the investigative information that will be provided to the prospective employer: i) You have the right to review information provided by previous employers; ii) You have the right to have errors in the information corrected by the previous employer and for that previous employer to re-send the corrected information to the prospective employer; iii) You have the right to have a rebuttal statement attached to the alleged erroneous information, if the previous employer and the driver cannot agree on the accuracy of the information. (2) Drivers who have previous DOT regulated employment history in the preceding three years and wish to review previous employer investigative information must submit a written request to the prospective employer. This may be done at any time, including when applying, or as late as 30 days after being employed or being notified of denial of employment. The prospective employer must provide this information within five business days of receiving the written request. If the prospective employer has not yet received the requested information from the previous employer, then the five-business day deadline will begin when the prospective employer receives the requested safety performance history information. If the driver has not arranged to pick up or receive the requested records within 30 days of the prospective employer making them available, the prospective employer may consider you to have waived your request to review the records.
